Kreisjugendamt Steinfurt

The youth welfare office Steinfurt is regionally responsible to the youth politics, the youth professional aid, for the co-ordination of the open and associated youth work, as well as for youth-specific topics. Additionally it is coordinating organization for the hosting and sending projects of the European voluntary service since 1997. Since this time over 220 volunteers from 23 different countries did their EVS in our region and over 200 young people went out of Germany into another European country to gain new experiences with the EVS.
