What is Dynamo International ?

Introduction

Dynamo International is a nonprofit association created on 2001. It was born from Dynamo AMO (helping service to young people in their environment) specialized after more than 25 years in the social street work to benefit children and young people in Brussels.

2

Dynamo has three lines of work :

The Network of Social Street Workers,

Where the workers go directly to meet young people on the street. The network is engaged to promote the social street work internationally.

The cooperation to development,

Support to projects that concern children and young people in street situation in Democratic Republic of Congo, Vietnam, Nepal, etc.

Dynamo International Mobilité is a project where the objective is to give the opportunity to young people in difficult situation, between 13 and 25 years, to live a unique experience abroad.

This is the branch where you are going to do your EVS!

In details...

The Network of Social Street Workers

Currently Dynamo International coordinates the International Network of Social Street Workers, consisting of 48 countries where 23 are European and it is recognized by the European Network against Poverty and Social Exclusion. This network allows to facilitate collaborations, promote formations, exchanging of experiences and good social street work practices, and to make the social street work known around the world.

The Cooperation to Development

Under this sector Dynamo International was recognized as a NGO (non-governmental organization) after 2004. It carries as well education activities aimed for development in order to sensitize a large audience about the problems with development and to contribute to build a better perception of reality of the children and young people living on the streets and adults living in tenuousness situation in Europe and third world countries. Also, Dynamo is a member of ACODEV (Federation of French speaking NGOs), CNCD (National Center for Cooperation to Development, for its initials on French) and CIDE (Group in charge of monitoring the International Convention of Children's Rights).

Dynamo International Mobilité

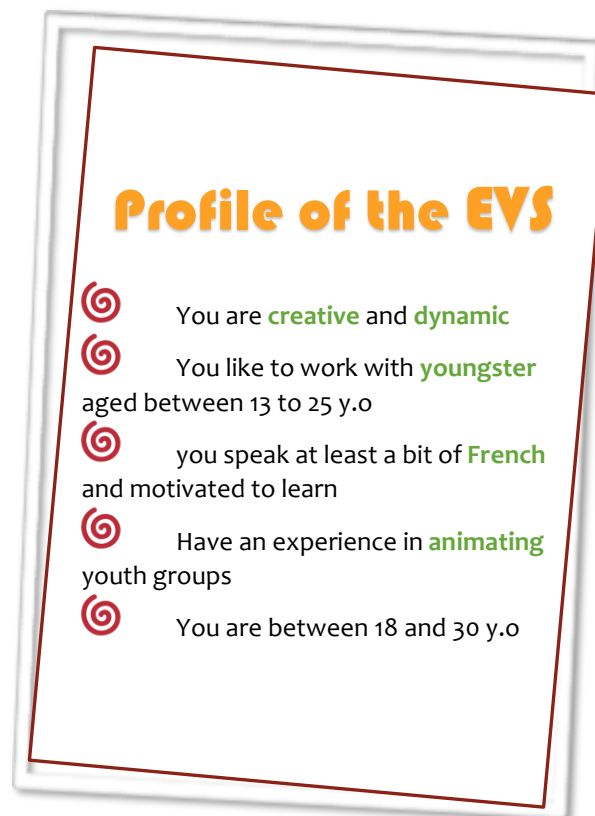

After 2009, Dynamo International launched a Particular Pedagogic Project « Mobility Project, Insertion of Young People in Difficulties ». Thereby engaging in a volunteering project becomes as well a reality that is accessible for them. It's about of reaching for an equal opportunity for the access of international mobility with and for these young people. The objectives of the Mobility Project are:

- ④ Facilitate the access to resources, services, programs, structures and existing possibilities (Specially the European Voluntary Service) to people between 13 and 25 years old in need of being accompanied in the research of a future project ;
- ④ Help and support social workers in their collective mobility projects of international exchange of young people in difficulties as well in the mobility programs that exists for everybody above 13 years old;
- ④ Sensitize the public opinions on an international level, the authorities and professionals on the Youth Aid sector to address socio-professional issues when it comes to the insertion of young people in difficulties.
